Seikantai5271: the connection between food and sex lies in their sensory and pleasurable nature. Both involve stimulating the senses, creating pleasure, and can be intimate and shared experiences. From the physical sensations to the sensory experience, the sharing of intimacy, the pleasure and gratification they provide, to the stimulation of endorphins in the brain, food and sex share common ground in enhancing pleasure and fostering intimate connections between individuals. By gently lifting the plate, you'll reveal a discreetly placed QR code underneath. Scanning this code grants you access to a curated selection of exclusive recipes, personally chosen by the artist to reflect the core concept of the project: the intimate connection between sensuality and cuisine.

The memory of the past reassembles today in a new fashion. While the mirror itself inverts the direction of light since ages, the animated eyes trade place of the observer and reverse the function of the mirror: while our image is reflected, the eyes are looking at us and the surroundings.

LA TIMIDA VASE

seletti / object

28 / 29

design:
Bigotta

porcelain

"La timida" carries a name full of contrast, a dualism: a woman without veils, in her full nudity but in a pose that expresses shyness. The same play chosen by the artist for her stage name "la bigotta", which does not reflect her lifestyle, attitude, or work. La timida is a vase that holds a single flower, transforming into the "flower woman", one of the most iconic illustrations by la bigotta. Handcrafted by a master artisan in fine porcelain, each piece is shaped with patience and care, where every curve and detail reflects the beauty of true craftsmanship.

VELASCHINO VASE

design:
Niccolò Spirito

porcelain

Reimagined as a domestic object, the Velasca becomes Velaschino, a sculptural vase, with the architectural presence scaled down, yet no less evocative. Familiar and instantly recognizable, it introduces a new kind of intimacy, bringing design and memory into everyday life. In this transformation, the iconic form finds a new role: still a vessel, but one that now holds nature and imagination within the home.

LIMITED EDITION / 999 PCS.

design:
Marcantonio

porcelain,
base: plaster

Amor Volat is a vase that seems to defy gravity, an upside-down head that transforms a classical sculpture into a symbol of lightness. Inspired by that moment when falling in love makes us feel as if we're floating in the air, at the mercy of a softer, brighter, more magical world. Marcantonio wanted to capture that feeling of being swept away by the wind of emotions, when everything becomes lighter and the boundary between reality and dream dissolves. Like in Chagall's Over the Town, this object celebrates love and that ineffable sensation of hovering between earth and sky. Amor Volat is not just a vase, it's a tribute to those who live with their hearts in flight. And the flowers? They are the secret language of emotions!

PLASTIC PEACE

design:
Gianpiero

resin

this little green soldier, straight from childhood memories, kneels not to aim but to disarm. His rifle, once molded for war, now melts in his hands like wax under sunlight. No violence, no struggle. Just the quiet power of gentleness. A tribute to innocence, to the dream that even plastic can melt hate. This is the moment where war gives up and peace begins to play.
