The Superfurniture collection pays tribute to the radical Italian design of the '60s and '70s, reinterpreted through the contemporary vision of Hello Again, an anonymous collective of designers and artists.

With bold colors and an ironic visual language, Superfurniture revives the provocative spirit of that movement, making it fresh, relevant, and accessible. This project embodies the perfect synergy between the visionary energy of radical design and Seletti's core values: creativity, curiosity, and a daring approach that challenges conventions. Born from meticulous manufacturing research, the collection aims to bring history, style, and innovation into homes everywhere.

SUPERFURNITURE

The image features a dense, black and white speckled pattern, resembling a terrazzo or marbled paper texture. The speckles are of various sizes and shapes, creating a busy, organic visual field. In the center of the image, there is a solid black horizontal rectangle. Inside this rectangle, the word "SELETTI" is written in a clean, white, uppercase, sans-serif typeface. The text is centered both horizontally and vertically within the rectangle.
